Marine

Transport & Logistics

Our Marine Cargo policy offers protection for goods in transit and in storage with flexible cover tailored to industry sectors. We can also provide coverage for additional components such as mounting/assembly, business interruption and delay in start-up.

Our Logistics liability policy covers a range of logistics professionals including road hauliers, stevedores, warehouse operators, freight forwarders and container/tank terminals in the event of a claim.

With specialist underwriters and dedicated claims handlers with many years of experience in the field, we provide underwriting expertise, breadth of cover and professional claims service.

We offer tacit and project policies and for logistics multiline policies including cargo liability, general liability, employers' liability, customs, cargo and landbased equipment.
