

As part of our Financial Institutions (FI) suite, our Directors and Officers (D&O) policy provides protection for directors and senior management against alleged breach of duty, negligence, and other wrongful acts whilst acting in a fiduciary or leadership capacity.

Protecting clients in the financial services sector is a consistently shifting challenge, as technology develops at lightning pace and alongside that comes new risks to assess and manage.

With specialist underwriters and dedicated claims handlers onshore, we offer local underwriting expertise, breadth of cover, and professional claims service in Australia.
