

Our General Liability policy provides comprehensive worldwide coverage across a broad range of risks for trades and occupations, leveraging our extensive global network. This includes retail, manufacturing, transportation and power generation, as well as more niche areas such as asbestos removal.

Our vastly experienced, market-leading team offers high service levels and commits to delivering swift response times. The team has experience writing business from Canada, Australia, Latin America, the Caribbean and ROW. We have capability to consider international risks with US domiciled activity and US exports.

We also benefit from expert dedicated Claims resource, sitting within the wider award-winning Markel International Claims team.
